HR CONSULTANCY FIRM OF THE YEAR

Consensus HR

Offering straight-talking and flexible outsourced human resources solutions, Consensus HR take the pain out of employee-based activities. With a commitment to practical solutions and scalability, the specialists ensure clients' HR needs are met effectively, regardless of changes in business dynamics. The Stevenage-based firm's primary objective is to prevent HR problems, finding positive resolutions that align with both business objectives and employee welfare and they maintain strict adherence to HR obligations, ensuring clients remain fully compliant with employment laws and regulations. Catering to businesses of all sizes and sectors, their solutions aim to enhance employee retention and establish clients as employers of choice.

The judges were particularly impressed by the customisation of services available from the experts at Consensus HR, especially for their SME clients. Understanding the challenges of limited resources many small enterprises endure at the start of their lives, they provide cost-effective solutions without ever compromising on quality. Including options such as employment tribunal indemnity insurance, they offer peace of mind amidst the complexities of employment legislation and are reliably exceptional due to their personalised approach, expert knowledge and commitment to compliance.
